

Things to Know, Before You Go & Curriculum Overview

APS High School to True Colors Theatre Company

About the Show

Holler If Ya Hear Me: A story of family, love and a community's strength inspired by the music of Tupac Shakur. Holler If Ya Hear Me, the world inside Tupac Shakur's music and lyrics, blazes to life in a non-biographical story about inner city life and the struggle for peace against the daily challenges faced by an ensemble of characters. This original musical will be entertaining to multiple generations, as it highlights poetry from one of the 20th century's most influential and culturally prominent voices. This production is timely and will be relevant to APS students. In addition, APS students will witness a few college students from the Atlanta University Center participate in leading and ensemble roles in the production. Please note, the play does contain adult language and themes.

Chaperones

True Colors will provide each school with a document that will list the expected student number for their school and a section for the chaperone/teacher to fill in the actual student number for the day of the event. Chaperones/teachers should give this document to an usher and the usher will escort the school group to their designated area in the theatre. At that point the usher will assist the teacher(s) with seating their students.

Visitation Norms

This is a stage performance. Upon entering the theater and during the show, please keep noise and distraction to a minimum.
