

Things to Know, Before You Go & Curriculum Overview

APS High School to the Rialto Center for the Arts

About the Show

Alvin Ailey Dance Theater: Atlanta Public Schools students will attend special Ailey performances. Each performance will end with a question and answer session, in order to give students an opportunity to interact with the artists and ask questions about the performance.

Day-of Contact Information:

Venue: Rialto Center for the Arts
84 Luckie Street
Atlanta, GA 30303

Contact Information:

Laverne Perry
404-413-9820

The venue is located downtown on the corner of Luckie Street and Forsyth Street.

Special Instructions:

Bus Information

Buses should drop off students in front of the theatre and then immediately depart to make room for the next bus.

Chaperones

We encourage teachers and chaperones to spread out among the group and to separate potentially disruptive students in advance.

Visitation Norms

This is a stage performance. Upon entering the theater and during the show, please keep noise and distraction to a minimum.

- Please turn OFF all cell phones.
- For the safety of our performers there is NO FLASH PHOTOGRAPHY, videotaping or recording of any kind, including cell phones.
- There is no food or drink permitted in the Performing Arts Center Theater.
- Gentlemen please remove hats.
- Show respect for the performers by:
 - Refraining from talking and moving around during a performance.
 - Show your support and appreciation after the performance is finished with applause.
 - Applauding when a scene ends is encouraged. Watch for cues such as dimming house or stage lights.

Enjoy the performance and thank you for being a respectful and supportive audience!

Georgia Performance Standards(GPS) – Curriculum Connection

- DHS3CR.2; DHS3RE.1; DHS3CO