Artistic Direction

Imagine one continuous line, connecting the past struggles, sacrifices, and triumphs of our ancestors to our present-day reality. We have a duty to not only honor them, but to capitalize off of the legacy. Leaders of all different backgrounds have planted seeds (Values of hard-work, community, education, and inclusion). Some of which they weren't able to see grow. We have to cultivate these seeds and ensure their growth across generations. In doing so, we can create a world where we learn for the mistakes of the past, love all, and embrace the many differences that make us unique.
