LATEST ART NEWS

Hello Chastain!

Our current exhibition in the gallery, "Outer | Environments | Inner", has received rave reviews! Since we opened the exhibition, we had a great talk with the artists and the Galloway School, and WABE's City Lights with Lois Reitz recently interviewed the exhibition's artists.

We thank everyone who has visited the exhibition, and we encourage you to join us for the Artist Talk on March 7 at 1 pm. The exhibition closes on March 14, so please stop by the gallery to see this exciting show before it ends.

Our next exhibition, "Then There Were 2", will feature abstract artists Eric Mack and Jamele Wright and will open March 27, at 6:30 pm. SAVE THE DATE and join us for what will be an amazing show.

Also, we appreciate your patience as we renovate our building. As work continues, we will email you about temporary changes and announcements regarding our progress until the work is complete.

Thank you for your continued support, and we look forward to seeing you around the arts center.

Artfully Yours,

Karen Lowe

Spring 2020 Class Session

Spring classes will begin in just a few weeks!

While some classes are already full, we still have a great selection of classes that are accepting students.

Additionally, if a class you would like to take is already full, we encourage you to join the class' waitlist. Waitlist students are enrolled into class openings on a "first come, first served" bias, so make sure you sign-up today to ensure your spot!

We will continue class registration through to the beginning of Spring Session. If students have any questions, concerns about their classes, or our refund process, contact the front office by calling us at 404-252-2927 or email us at Chastainarts@atlantaga.gov.
